

The Town of Pineville relies on many volunteers to help achieve community goals. Do you want to make a tangible difference? Would you like to use your skills and talents for the good? Would you like to meet and network with others in the community? Working to elevate a cause and helping others can be rewarding.

As an applicant, you are encouraged to attend a meeting or two of the board or committee that you're interested in. Most, if not all, of the boards and committees meet monthly, but a few meet only quarterly.

Mecklenburg County currently has openings for the following boards which require a resident from one of the southern towns:

Air Quality Commission

Arts & Science Council

Parks & Rec Commission

Transit Services Advisory ***

** The Town of Pineville is required to have a Pineville resident on the Transit Services Advisory Board.

If you are interested in any of the boards that have openings, please contact Lisa Snyder at lsnyder@pinevillenc.gov or call (704) 889-2361
